

Lesson 2: 1-2 Chronicles

GROW University - Old Testament 102

Context

Historical:

Redemptive-historical:

Theme

Yahweh is faithful to His covenant promises to David, and that affects all the people(s): All the people(s) will find joy and be blessed in their relationship with Yahweh as He dwells among them in His people, and they will be given the privilege of prayer and worship when they are faithful to Him from the heart.

Outline W/ Pivotal Texts

- I. 1 Chronicles 1-9 — Genealogies
- II. 1 Chronicles 10-29 — David, the great leader
- III. 2 Chronicles 1-9 — Solomon, another great leader
- IV. 2 Chronicles 10-36 — the Kings of Judah, and the downward turn

Theme Texts

1 Chronicles 1-9

A Focus on The Whole World.

Who is the first person mentioned in the genealogy? Adam

- (1) To show that Yahweh's promises actually go a lot further back than just David (we actually know them to go all the way back to Genesis 3:15).
- (2) To say that this story of David and his descendants relates not only to Judah but to every nation and every person everywhere at all times. This, indeed, is a cosmic drama.

1:27-28, 34

2:3, 15

3:19

Chapters 4-8

Chapter 9

17:11-14

29:10-18

2 Chronicles 1-9

6:5-6

Solomon's prayer

7:1-3, 10, 14

2 Chronicles 10-36

12:6

20:4

30:27

2:17*

36:15, 22-23

Yahweh's sovereign management of Cyrus' heart (Proverbs 21:1), a Gentile king.

Conclusion

Luke 2:9-11